

Software Products & Solutions

FotoWare Digital Asset Management

FotoWare makes digital archiving, administration and processing of digital media easy and powerful and the FotoWare applications will provide you with complete flexibility while designing the system best suitable for your company.

Laidback Solutions Publishing Workflow

Laidback Solutions focus is to develop software applications that increases the efficiency and improves the workflow in the publishing industry.

Binuscan Color Management & Workflow

Binuscan develops software designed for Color Management, high-end image processing, retouching and workflow for pre press and press professionals.

vjoon - Cross-Media Publishing

vjoon's unique multi-channel workflow concept has the advantage of letting publishers create and enrich content according to the requirements of the individual output channel and still have all videos, pictures, articles and layouts centrally managed and retrievable within K4.

About EvioTech

EvioTech focus on two main market segments and system solutions:

- ▶ Digital Asset Management and Web Content Management solutions for the government and corporate sectors.
- ▶ Digital Asset Management, Pre press and Publishing Systems for newspapers, magazines and other publishing related organizations.

In order to secure our customers investments and maximize system utilization, EvioTech provides vast expertise based on in-depth knowledge of the industry and we maintain a close cooperation with the customer during all stages, from initial implementation to long term services.

Our extensive maintenance, support and service programs will ensure your system is continuously maintained and improved. We are always there to answer your questions and offer consultation on your system, operations and emerging technologies.

Regional Representation

All though EvioTech Co., Ltd. is located in Bangkok, Thailand our aim and focus is to distribute, implement and support software solutions among all countries in the South East Asia Region.

Therefore EvioTech also provides a network of local re sellers in the South East Asia Region that are very well qualified to assist you with regards to sales support, system consulting and implementation as well as providing continuous support for your solution.

Our re sellers will provide an in-depth expertise and know-how from various industries and will maintain a close cooperation with our customers during all stages, from initial inquiry, system implementation to continuing system support and maintenance.

Technical Services & Consultation

Color Management & Consultation

The EvioTech color management service program covers every aspect of a color management and includes all necessary services and tasks, such as professional analysis, implementation, workflow, workshops and training.

EvioTech also offers extensive training programs in Color Management theories and know-how. Each training program will be tailor made in order to suite each customers environment and operations.

Fotoware System Training

EvioTech offers advanced FotoWare technical workshops for system administrators, system developers and end users as well as general technical support.

After completing any of our FotoWare workshop programs, the participants will have an increased understanding and know-how of the FotoWare system and how each function and feature of the FotoWare system can improve the customer's business operation.

EvioTech Co., Ltd.

Kitsiri Bldg, 1054/14, New Petchaburi Rd, Makkasan, Ratchathewe, Bangkok 10400, Thailand

Tel: +66.2.254 3074

Fax: +66.2.254 3075

E-mail: contact@eviotech.com

Web: www.eviotech.com